

Rule #10 “Don’t forget to praise him.”

Do you ever have those moments where you feel that you are forgetting to do something, but you can’t remember what it is? If we are not careful, we can experience something similar after God delivers us from a Red Sea crisis. We can forget to say thank you. This week we conclude our series with Red Sea Rule #10: Don’t forget to praise him.

Relevant Information (Large Group)

- What would be your dream job?
- What was one thing that stood out to you from the message on Sunday?
- If you could ask God one question about your current Red Sea crisis or a past Red Sea crisis, what would you ask him? How do you think he would respond?
- Read Exodus 15:1-21. What does this passage teach us about praising God?
- Share a hymn or song that has been especially meaningful to you in your life.
- Read Luke 17:11-19. Only one leper returned to thank God. Why do you think there’s a tendency to neglect praise and thanksgiving to God?
- Have you ever found it difficult to praise God? If so, how did you overcome that difficulty?
- What are some creative ways you can praise God throughout your day?
- Why should you praise God in the middle of your current or future Red Sea crisis?
- Share with your group how God has used this study in your current situation. Or share how it has prepared you for a future Red Sea crisis.
- Please provide your growth group host with honest feedback on your experience in their group. Simply share with them privately or publically what they did well and what could be improved. Also share any suggestions you might have that would encourage them as they move forward in hosting Growth Groups.

Gracious Obedience “Application” (Smaller Groups 2-6 people)

- What steps in your daily routine will help you make praise an ongoing habit in your life?

Walking Together (Smaller Groups 2-6 people)

- Pick a time, place, and location to celebrate with your group on finishing this study.

Outreach (Large Group)

- Have you practiced sharing the gospel with your group yet? Organize a time when you'll do a little role-playing to "always be prepared to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have." (1 Pet 3:15) Make it fun!
