

WEEK #4: BECOMING A CHURCH GOD CAN USE PERGAMUM: AN UNCOMPROMISING LOYALTY

Do you find it difficult to live the Christian life in a secular culture? If so, then you will find Jesus' letter to the Church at Pergamum especially relevant. Discover the third quality Jesus is looking for in his Church: An Uncompromising Loyalty.

Catching Up

- What is one good thing that happened in your life this week?
- What is one challenge you faced this week?

Discussion

- What is one thing that stood out to you from Sunday's message?
- Read Revelation 2:12-17.
- Where do you see Christians today being tempted to compromise?
- Do you think the temptation to compromise your values and morals is getting more difficult? Explain.
- How can fellowship with other Christians help you maintain an uncompromising loyalty to Christ?
- How have you successfully maintained your loyalty to Christ when you have been tempted to compromise?
- Pastor Rick quoted Edmund Burk, "All that is necessary for the triumph of evil is for good men to do nothing." What do you think this means?
- Why is it so important for us at Grace to maintain an uncompromising loyalty to Christ in our secular culture?
- What do you think the following word pictures used by Jesus symbolizes: hidden manna, white stone, new name?

Application

- What will you do this week to maintain an uncompromising loyalty to Christ?
