~Growth Discussion Questions~

Central Idea: In light of God's great forgiveness and mercy toward us, we have not the smallest right to withhold pardon from those who sin against us.

Read: MATTHEW 18:21-35

1. What would you do to celebrate if all your debts were suddenly canceled?
2. What is the principle here for dealing with someone who has wronged you? (Ex., "You can't out-forgive God. God will get you if you don't forgive! God expects you to be a pushover. People who can't forgive wind up in their own chains. Only the forgiven can forgive.")
3. Suppose someone said to you, "The problem with you Christians is that you let everybody off the hook. You just don't realize that by doing so you are only encouraging irresponsible behavior." How would you respond?
